CALL FOR APPLICATIONS: “HOW DO I SEE YOU?”

DokuFest (Prizren), Foundation Fund B92 (Belgrade) and Free Zone Film Festival (Belgrade) are inviting youth aged 18-25 from Kosovo and Serbia to apply to participate in Online Cultural Exchange Program

DESCRIPTION OF THE ACTIVITY

The project "HOW DO I SEE YOU?" aims to create an opportunity for youth from Kosovo and Serbia to engage in a meaningful exchange, cooperation and interpersonal dialogue. The activities of this exchange program intend to bring youth together through intensive collaboration and group work, active participation in lectures and discussions as well as cultural visits in heritage sites. Moreover, youngsters will attend film screenings and workshops through which they will produce audio-visual content that will feature them interviewing each other. The produced video materials will be packaged into two-minute stories on how youth from each country see each other, with the intention to be presented through curated audio-visual exhibition that will be introduced at International Human Rights Free Zone Film Festival in Belgrade and International Documentary and Short Film Festival Dokufest in Prizren and, also streamed on a special made online platform.

Due to the outbreak and uncertainty of the COVID-19 pandemic, as an alternative to physical gatherings, the program will start with Online Cultural Exchange Program where participants will get the opportunity to meet each other and engage in meaningful discussion through video making.

This year, the program will gather 16 young people aged 18-25 from Serbia and Kosovo interested in culture, art, human rights, media and film.

Similarly, to the residential camps, the online meetings will emphasize the interpersonal dialogue and cooperation between the young people from Kosovo and Serbia. Participants will take part in online meetings where they will be assigned to produce short videos (2-minute) in relation to how do they see themselves and each other. The online sessions will be facilitated on Zoom Platform.

If the situation with the COVID-19 pandemic allows, after the successful completion of the online-meetings, the activity foresees a one-week meeting in Kosovo or in Serbia between the accepted participants.

The one-week program would include cultural heritage site visits, youth networks working with culture and innovation, attending workshops and visiting interethnic initiatives. All accepted participants' accommodation expenses, travel costs, meal costs (two meals per day) will be covered by the project.
